I don't know why i'm scared of all Things i feel when i'm alone I wonder why i wanna hide my fears

But now i'm gonna play and act With my soul and with my heart Starting today throw fears away Till i feel alive again

I've been wasting time i should have Spent loving today I've been losing chances I could have Used to learn the way

To live a dream
The sky in it's eternity
The waves of the ocean
Are rolling the emotion
Sailing through my mind
Like wings that wave godbye

... Goodbye

To live a dream the sky in it's eternity
The waves of the ocean
Are rolling the emotion
Sailing through my mind
Like wings that wave godbye

... Goodbye
