

Silence

Gigi d'Agostino

Now is the time... Run to my heart...
Lead your life into the destiny of love...
Walking hand in hand and then...
Hold me tight when I look into your eyes...

I've been waiting for your love...
Hold your life just for the destiny of love...
I adore see your smile...
This time
Hold me tight when I look into your eyes...

Stay with me for ever
Sharing love together
Keep my dream alive
Touch with me the sky

Is got to be the reason
Share with you my freedom
Steal a ray of sun
While I'm here with you
You must come along
Everywhere I go
I just want to love you so

To fall in love with you
I never ever played
I just want to say hello
It takes so long to draw
From every where I go
I just want to love you so

To fall in love with you
I never ever played
I just want to say hello
It takes so long to draw
From every where I go
I just want to love you so

Never ever played
Just want to say hello

To fall in love with you
I never ever played
I just want to say hello
It takes so long to draw
From every where I go
I just want to love you so
