

Too Long

Gilbert O'Sullivan

I've been outside my window looking in for a change,
And what I've seen let me tell you,
Isn't the least bit strange,
My landlady she puts her head into my room,
Her nose must be as long as the handle of a broom,
But you, you amaze me when you suddenly show up,
Protesting your innocence and proclaiming your love,
But it's been too long, since you went away,
Too long, you know there's no chance you staying,
Too long, baby, but you should know that,
After seven whole years you still want me back,
It's been too long baby, take my advice,
You can walk out on me once but you can't do it twice,
If life is what you make it then you'll have to agree,
In my life I've had more than a lifetime's misery,
It's not that I'm complaining, you know I wouldn't do that,
But in our firm when there's trouble, it's me who gets the sack
But you, you amaze me with your big blue eyes,
You thought me seeing you would be nice surprise,
But it's been too long, too long since you went away,
Too long, can't you hear what I'm saying,
Too long, baby, why won't you be told,
Sure I cared about you once but that was long ago
It's been too long baby, go ahead and cry,
You can walk out on me once but you can't do it twice,
Too long, baby, why won't you be told,
Sure I cared about you once but that was long ago
Go on back to the life that you said you had found,
Don't bother me with your ups and your downs,
Oh I don't understand how someone like you,
Turns up like this out of the blue,
Too long, baby, why won't you be told,
Sure I cared about you once but that was long ago
It's been too long baby, you heard what I said,
It's as if you had returned from the dead,
Too long baby.
