

Girls Who Can Read Your Mind

Paul Gilbert

I never asked her to stay
And now she's walking away
Singing "C'est La Vie"
Will I ever learn my lesson?

I didn't know what I had
And so I treated her bad
Now she's running free
Will I ever learn my lesson?

I don't believe what they tell me anymore about
Girls, girls who can read your mind
Girls, girls who know what you're thinking all the time
Girls, girls who can read your mind
If she knew what I was thinking
She would never ever leave me behind

I drank a bottle of wine
I tried to buy me some time
But something's wrong with me
And nobody wants to listen

I think of her every day
I know she's probably hangin'
Out with Donnie Vie
And they're doing more than kissin'

I don't believe what they tell me anymore about
Girls, girls who can read your mind
Girls, girls who know what you're thinking all the time
Girls, girls who can read your mind
If she knew what I was thinking
She would never ever leave me
What I was thinking
She would never ever leave me

Don't believe it
Don't believe it
Don't believe it
I don't believe about
Girls, girls who can read your mind
Girls, girls who know what you're thinking all the time
Girls, girls who can read your mind
Girls, girls who know what you're thinking all the time
Girls, girls who can read your mind
