

New Rush

Gin Wigmore

I step on you to sip on fire
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I burn my eyes to see through water
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I got this feeling that I can't go back

It's always you in my bed
And in that bed, I saw our deaths
I need to sleep with my eyes on someone new
To all the fools that live in my heart
To all the times I played the part
I can blame all my mistakes I made on you

I step on you to sip on fire
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I burn my eyes to see through water
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I got this feeling that I can't go back

I gave so much to feel you rush
And in that rush, I want your touch
I need to slip inside the night
Back into you
I am cold from what you've done
When it gets hot, you know I'll run
I will blame all my mistakes I made on you

I step on you to sip on fire
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I burn my eyes to see through water
I got this feeling that I can't go back
I got this feeling that I can't go back
