

Bound to Cry

Gino Vannelli

Hand in hand
Lonely woman
Broken man
Heart to heart
Tempting fate right from the start
Some other place
Some other time
You keep your distance and I'll keep mine
Don't talk of love
Don't look at me that way
Leave me now before I beg you to stay

Cause in the end someone always says goodbye
You know that time always tells
In the end someone always lives a lie
So make it easy on yourself
Yes in the end someone's always bound to cry

Face to face
So frightened of the first embrace
When to say when
I couldn't bear to love and lose again
So don't say yes
Don't say no
Just turn your back and walk away slow
Don't waste you life
Don't waste your precious years
One sweet touch will only lead us to tears

Cause in the end someone always says goodbye
You know that time always tells
In the end someone always lives a lie
So make it easy on yourself
Yes in the end someone's always bound to cry

Somebody's bound to cry
Don't hesitate
Somebody's bound to cry
Better leave before it's too late
Somebody's bound to cry

Hey don't waste your precious years
One sweet touch will only lead us to tears

Cause in the end someone always says goodbye
You know that time always tells
In the end someone always lives a lie
So make it easy on yourself
Yes in the end someone's always bound to cry
