

In the Name of the Money

Gino Vannelli

The sun rises after midnight
Big dreamers never sleep
She takes a slow walk in the red light
Wishin' on the stars in concrete
Jet black roots under alabaster hair
Betty Grable legs gonna get her somewhere
She's runnin' every light on the road to recognition
Under one condition

In the name of money
In the name of fame
Anything goes when you play that game
In the name of money
In the name of fame
You gotta stick it out if you want to stake your claim

So some hotshot in a rag top
Gets her on the silver screen
One hundred mirrors far a backdrop
Oh, but her face was never seen
Agents of love, devils in disguise
They're blowin' smoke in the little girl's eyes
She'll sign the dotted line and fall into submission
Under one condition

In the name of money
In the name of fame
Anything goes when you play that game
In the name of money
In the name of fame
You gotta stick it out if you want to stake your claim

Someday she'll be a leading lady
In a baby blue Mercedes
When she's rich and famous
Her scandals will entertain us
(The badder, the better)

Jet black roots under alabaster hair
Betty Grable legs gonna get her somewhere
She's runnin' every light on the road to recognition
Under one condition

In the name of money
In the name of fame
Anything goes when you play that game
In the name of money
In the name of fame
You gotta stick it out if you want to stake your claim

In the name of money...

In the name of fame...
