

King for a Day

Gino Vannelli

Blinded by the magenta spotlight
Stands a disposable commodity
Don't a high price ticket make a star shine so bright
A taste of immortality
And the critics they call you the new boy wonder
And you know just how to make a young girl cry
The more you feed them the more they hunger
As you watch the money multiply

How does it feel to be?
How does it feel to be?
King for a day

You got the whole damn world spinning 'round your middle finger
Hey! Shoot a little skeet with the president
And your mother loves you more for every dollar you bring her
And your latest wife is worth every cent

How does it feel to be?
How does it feel to be?
King for a day

Blinded by the magenta spotlight
Stands a manufactured fantasy
Don't a high price ticket make a star
Shine so bright
And the people love you endlessly

How does it feel to be?
How does it feel to be?
King for a day
How does it feel to be?
How does it feel to be... king
