

Mardi Gras

Gino Vannelli

I broke the doldrums of my dreary dreams
The London bridge kept fallin' down
I blew my coop and flew to New Orleans
To feast my heart on higher ground

I wanna thank you for the love you bring
Louisiana is a song I sing
Me oh my I don't know what to do
But love you...

Voila! The marshal Frand of Mardi Gras
A royal rascal smack dab in his prime
One billion blue doubloons and a single straw
In a royal flask of cajun wine

I wanna thank you for the love we made
Louisiana is a sweet parade
Me oh my I don't know what to do
But love you...

I wanna thank you for the love you shine
Louisiana is a love of mine
Me oh my I don't know what to do
But love you
Oh Mardi Gras!
