

Piano Song

Gino Vannelli

My piano is my endless song
She's a warm and a wonderful friend
Of taverns and Gershwin and a world
We woo till we end

Hey old gal may I ask you
Could no one love you more so much more than me

My piano is my endless song
Such a warm and a faithful melody
And oh all the tears we cried and we've dried just you and me

Hey old gal may I ask you
Does Jesus love you more much much more than me
