The Other Man

Gino Vannelli

An urgent call in the dead of night A voice that whispers "Now" A voice that trembles like a winter leaf Before it hits the ground

She leaves a crack in the bedroom door To slip the wire through Her husband sleeping in a empty bed No witness to the truth

It's a one way conversation I try to tell her no But it's a hopeless situation I just can't let her go

And here she is another desperate night In the arms of the other man Another day in a double life Every moment that she holds me tight I know just where I stand As I am the other man

She leaves my room like a criminal To beat the morning light Rehearsing ever little alibi To get it water tight

There's a note on the dresser top It's the same old classic line She says she's leaving him It's just a question of time

It's a no win situation 'Cause I just can't let her go And here she is another desperate night In the arms of the other man

Another day in a double life Every moment that she holds me tight I know just where I stand As I am the other man As I am the other man As I am the other man As I am the other man
