

Control

Girl in a Coma

Oh, oh, oh, ohhh oh ohhh oh ohhh oh
Oh it's true
You and I are gonna find a world that moves
To the beat of our heart and I hope it's soon
'Cause the time is ticking with the harvest moon

Simple true confession, I don't understand
Why you never did call me when I said you could
Oh you never did call me and I know I'm good
And I know, I know, I know, I know, I know ya said you would

And I wanted you to know that I am gonna lose control
Oh it's true, you and I are gonna find a world that moves
If we sit in silence will we change our mood
Understand the breath I breathe inside of you

Simple true confession, I don't understand
Why you never did call me when I said you could
Oh you never did call me and I know I'm good
And I know, I know, I know, I know, I know ya said you would
And I wanted you to know how that I am going to lose control
Ooooh, ooohhh...

It's building up inside my brain
All I want to give to you
All I ever knew inside
All I ever knew inside me
Happiness is warm inside
Happiness is warm inside
Happiness is warm inside
Happiness is warm inside...
Oh it's true, you and I are gonna find a world that moves
Oh it's true, you and I are gonna find a world that moves
