

Are you awake? Are you awake?
And I say, I never did fall so far from the tree.
And you will save and you will save all of our souls, last conversati on you had to have known.
I know the game you play but wait but wait but wait
but wait.

And I will save and I will save all my words for someone who speaks my language so clear.
Were you awake? Were you awake?
When I said my story so clear, the dream you were in.
I know the game I play but wait but wait but wait but wait.

Nothing can wait for the tide and feelings aren't over.
Nothing can wait for the tide and feelings aren't.

Are you awake? Are you awake?
Are you awake? Are you awake?

I would wait for the day when my momma would say that it would be ok.
Better luck for tomorrow.
And I know
it's ok 'cause my momma did say that it would be ok.
Better luck for tomorrow.

Better luck for tomorrow.

And I will save and I will save all my words for someone who speaks my language so clear.
And I will wait and I will wait for your grace to shine in my eyes, the dream you were in.
I know the game we play but wait but wait but wait but wait.
Nothing can wait for the tide and
feelings aren't.
I know the game we play.
Nothing can wait for the tide and
feelings aren't.
I know the game we play.
Nothing can wait for the tide and
feelings aren't
