

Hate Love

Girlicious

You know I'll be the one when you want me to
I always get the call when she's done with you
Maybe it's time I opened my eyes
Always feel the fool when you lie to me
You seem to make it up so easily
What's worse is that I let you every time

I wish that I could tell you

You only ever let me down, but what I need from you right now
Just try to look me in the eye and baby tell me
Why do you hate love? (hate hate hate love)
Hate love, hate hate hate love
Hate love, hate hate hate love
(hate hate)
I wonder do you hate love? (hate hate hate love)
Hate love, hate hate hate love
Hate love, hate hate hate love
(hate hate)

You like to glamour me, baby you do it well
I smile when I'm angry but you'll never tell
I hear your lips moving, I don't hear a sound
I think you think I like it when you make me hurt
Sometimes I hate myself because sometimes it works
And I can never bring myself to talk you down

I wish that I could tell you

You only ever let me down, but what I need from you right now
Just try to look me in the eye and baby tell me

Why do you hate love? (hate hate hate love)
Hate love, hate hate hate love
Hate love, hate hate hate love
(hate hate)
I wonder do you hate love? (hate hate hate love)
Hate love, hate hate hate love
Hate love, hate hate hate love
(hate hate)

If I wanted this to be something less than rational
Somewhere lost to in between, I could let myself go

Now I need to make this right
Get myself on track tonight
Before I do something, I might
Make you wonder why do I?
Hate love, hate hate hate love
Hate love, hate hate hate love
Hate love, hate hate hate love
It's no wonder that I hate love, I hate hate hate love

Hate love, I hate hate hate love
Hate love, I hate hate hate love
(hate hate)

And now you know why I hate love
(hate love)
