

Deadlines & Diets

Girls Aloud

It's 3am and you still look gorgeous
My morning-after feeling's kicking in
I hate to say but I'm feeling nauseous
I put that down to too much gin

I'm cool until reality
Hits me in the face and drops a phone in the tea and
You left no number
There's nothing left to do but kick back and sing

I've seen it before
I'll see it again
A never ending story of
Deadlines, diets, and devious men

Now just when things are going groovy
I see the rain clouds coming in
Wham-bam my life simply says don't movie
But as I'm going down ill grin

I'm cool until reality
Hits me in the face and drops a phone in the tea and
There's nothing left to do but kick back and sing

I've seen it before
I'll see it again
A never ending story of
Deadlines, diets, and devious men

I've seen it before (yeah)
I'll see it again
A never ending story of
Deadlines, diets, and devious men
