

Wish to do the same and to forget you
Rain isn't twice the same but still adore you
Redo all again, just decide to go to bed
You recline your head too

Wish over again to dare to phone you
Somewhere on the rain, I wish to see you

Wish that I resign and decide to go to bed
You recline your arms too

Wish I, wish I could drown
Damn why am I so cold
