

Roses Of Death

Girls Under Glass

Loneliness is no pain,
Love and sadness are like a chain
The more you love the more you suffer
You understand no love is forever
This is a love song an ode to our love
I want to be chained by our sweet blood
Loneliness is no end you understand
You break the chain you leave my home sweet
Loneliness feels so alone
This is a love song an ode to your breathe
That smells like roses
Roses of death
This is a love song an ode to our love
I want to be chained by our sweet blood
By our sweet blood
This is a love song an ode to your breathe that smells like roses
Roses of death, the roses of death
