

The Bitter End

Girls Under Glass

you see me falling deep in my heart you hurt me deep inside before you start to break my heart to break our love to let me down you see me falling slowly in your arms and I am crying my tears are warm you break my heart you break our love you let me down the bitter end why don't you understand? why do you go? why do I still love you so?
why do you leave me?
another man another land
why do you treat me until the bitter end?
