

Head over Heels

Girlschool

Head over heels, I've fallen again
What I know now, wish I knew then
But now that its over, this life begins
You got to suffer for all of your sins

I swear baby, I'm head over heels
And I should know just how it feels
I could never just be your friend
Head over heels in love again.

Why can't it ever turn out alright
Why do we always have to end up fighting
Why can't it ever be the perfect love
Why can't nobody ever give it enough

I swear baby, I'm head over heels
And I should know just how it feels
I could never just be your friend
Head over heels in love again.

Head over heels Don't push me to much
Cos only the best is good enough.
