

Milk Of Paradise

Giuni Russo

Hear the mellow bells
Hear the mellow bells
Hear the mellow wedding bells
The golden bells
What a world of happi-, what a world of happi-,
What a world of happiness they foretell

We two, on this seashore
We, we two together
We, the crazy lovers
We two, throwing on this hot sand
Confounding us with waves
And with violet scent

Hear the mellow bells
Hear the mellow bells
Hear the mellow wedding bells
The golden bells
What a world of happi-, what a world of happi-,
What a world of happiness they foretell

We two, on this seashore
We, we two together
We, the crazy lovers
We two, throwing on this hot sand
Confounding us with waves
And with violet scent

We've drunk the milk of paradise
The milk of paradise, of paradise
And we shall cry
With flashing eyes
With floating hair
We've drunk the milk of paradise, of paradise, of paradise
The milk of paradise, the milk of paradise, of paradise yeah
And we shall cry
With flashing eyes
With floating hair
