

Alone

Gladiator

Crossed the muddy doors where the sky is ever cried My eyes are grey and heart is torn out I feel here so alone Fathers faces scream mothers evoke the lights
by heart foreheads and scared souls still rake in colding sands

Been everywhere I swear
The pain in your feelings
The illness in your healings
The dirt deeds in your killings
I swear

Walking sullen mass
glitters in my eyes
I feel by soul
their shiny eyes and turbit blackned times Gotta keep on and be strong
'Cause in this world I walk alone
And I feel the pain
I still feel the same
So far from home

Been everywhere still I swear the pain in your feelings
The illness in your healings
The dirt deeds in your killings
I swear
