

Bloody property

Gladiator

an anguish made from terror coherence with existence death is impossible to go out from terrible lies your unready departure should mean torture of perm dull habit against infatuates your inborn qualities disasters of absurd deeds you kill every hope your rush nervously, you're fully on ground pressures to person psychic battery theft of youth warrant on flairs

outrage person
bloody property.

beg for your life
beg for your death appointment your worth by weakning of your breath trifling with a human life extract from sleep, unexperience the fear of every day unhuman entrance breeds the revence irritation, despair, death refer for help

the bloody property its bliss if you here catch some one or some quick death to stay in this state means live on a madman.

endless deep pain
still dwindling space my person is tearedout so i can't hear my own cry
