

Break the wall

Gladiator

She was a famous belle
She lived the wealthy way
Tripping - a change - one week on heroin
And molly had all the shits given away

Look into my eyes
Great wall (still bigger wall)
Cannot! Cannot! Cannot break the wall

He was a thriving man
But he was dependent on it
Short time and all importance fades away
He loves life but stays only 'till the end

Are you my friend or enemy?
Shaking box of my head
You are my pain my reality
No! No! No! No! No! No! No! No!

She was such a young girl
And she faded so innocently
Cruel born why are the shits.. the course
We've got more'n'more stupid reasons!!!
