

Daddy

Gladiator

I can say they never can change me
I've already my dreams, too
What they say it doesn't matter at all
I'm really so strong, too
Somebody gimme reason to live live without any fear, too
Nobody can destroy this my love
He lives in the blue sky, too
Daddy

Now you know who I spend my dreams with and walks in night streets, too
I love you from all my cryin' heart
I'm sorrowfull so much, too
Why can't you live with me and my mom
Please, come here between us, too
Nobody can destroy this my love
he lives in the blue sky, too
Daddy

All this time I lived in pain
With tremendous
Taste to change the fate
Nobody sees all those tears
Nobody sees all those tears
