Fulfill only your desires
Make that what you believe in
Love, dance, sing song in a fire
Stand in raining on the street
With me
With me

Make something unique, something special
In a short time you must say good - bye
Imagine, you are the painter
And you paint your own life
And death
And death

Don't forget you are the free
Just like a bird
Don't forget
You are the free
