I Wanna Be Loved

Gladys Knight

Why do I feel like my heart gets broken, Whenever I surrender my emotions I thought that I could tell you how I feel Whether good or bad, when IDm happy or sad, oh&

Why do I have to be the silent one, Whenever there is something on my mind I thought that we were partners in this game of love Why canOt I laugh or cry and share my feelings deep inside&

I wanna be loved by somebody wholls strong enough for me I wanna be free with my feelings that s the way it s supposed t o be IDm willing to share my emotions and give you what you need Just don t turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&

Why am I questioning where you are ItDs just because IDve made a few demands Remember all the times we cried and I dried your tears And how I held your hand, if you do please understand&

I wanna be loved by somebody wholls strong enough for me I wanna be free with my feelings that s the way it s supposed t o be IDm willing to share my emotions and give you what you need Just don t turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&

I wanna cry tears of joy and not of pain I want to share things that words cannot explain I don□t wanna go I just need for you to know That my love is sweet but strong But keep on holding on&

DCause& I wanna be loved by somebody whoDs strong enough for me You see I wanna be free I wanna be me thatDs the way itDs suppo sed to be IDm willing to share my emotions and give you what you need Just donDt turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&

Just don□t turn away if I say that I just wanna be me& Just don□t turn away if I say that I just wanna be me&
