

If Only She Knew

Glamour of the Kill

Yeah!

Your love is so addictive
I can't get out
No matter how much I fight it
It always ends up the same
You love to play the victim
In everything that you do
When I can't sleep at night
You know I'm coming for you

I'll never give you up
I'll take all I can from you
I'll never give you up

She knows I need her
and that's what she said
"I know it won't be long
Before you're mine"
She knows I need her
and that's what she said
"I know it won't be long
Before you're mine"

You taste the poison on me
You turn me down
I feel the trust is dying
Tears you're crying
Won't change a thing
It's wrong and I'll admit it
I feel no shame
I'll die another fucking sinner
No happy ever after
And no one at my grave

I'll never give you up
I'll take all I can from you
I'll never give you up

She knows I need her
and that's what she said
"I know it won't be long
Before you're mine"
She knows I need her
and that's what she said
"I know it won't be long
Before you're mine"

I'll never give you up
I'll take all I can from you
I'll never give you up

She knows I need her
and that's what she said
"I know it won't be long
Before you're mine"
She knows I need her

and that's what she said
"I know it won't be long
Before you're mine"

She knows I need her
"I know it won't be long
Before you're mine"
She knows I need her
"I know it won't be long
Before you're mine"
