

Season 2 Episode 3

Glass Animals

Don't you need me
Oh baby boy
Cause I'm so happy
Without your noise

Baby, now my head is on backwards
And my feet at funny angles
And every time I take a step
We're moving forwards faster
And lately, I can't take it
Baby, now my body's intact
And in an ordinary fashion
And everything I tried to leave behind
Is still beside us
And lately I can't take it

Leftover breakfast, cereal for lunch
She's broken but she's fun
My girl eats mayonnaise
From a jar while she's gettin' blazed

Don't you need me
Oh, baby boy
Cause I'm so happy
Without your noise

Lazy, you're lyin' on your belly
With a super porp cola
Lookin' at your phone in clothes
You've worn for three days over
With a cookie as a coaster
Maybe, I wish I could remould you
To vertical and golden
But you turned to Styrofoam
And so it hurts to say it's hopeless
And we ain't gonna make it

Leftover breakfast, cereal for lunch
She's broken but she's fun
My girl eats mayonnaise
From a jar when she's gettin' blazed

She's drunk on old cartoons
Liquid TV afternoons
Sometimes it makes me laugh
Sometimes it makes me sad

Don't you need me
Oh, baby boy
Cause I'm so happy
Without your noise
Don't you need me
Oh, baby boy
Cause I'm so happy

Oh baby, now my head is on backwards

Mmm baby, now my head is on backwards
Don't you need me
Oh, baby boy
Cause I'm so happy
