

Pain Pain, Never Again

Glasvegas

Pain, pain, never again
A never having existed emotion called pain
A home where tranquility lives and prevails
The bluest of blue skies and the most angelic of all angels
Casablanca type ending all tales
Where over the cruel, the kind heart reigns
Like a backdrop fitting of a soulful Kurt Cobain
I'm overcoming the obstacles of the ubiquitous demon named 'shame'
Denise Denise, look at the swan that sails and sails and sails
A triumphant me and you again and again
The end credits naming us as the majestic escapists of cocaine
Pain, pain, never again.
