I Don't Believe You (She Acts Like We Never Have Met)

Glen Campbell

I can't understand she let go of my hand an' left me here facin q the wall

I'd sure like to know why she did go but I can't get close to h er at all

Though we kissed through the wild blazing nighttime she said sh e would never forget

But now morning is clear it's like I ain't here she just acts l ike we never have met

If I didn't have to guess well I'd gladly confess to anything that I might have tried

If I was with her too long or I've done something wrong I wish she'd tell me what it is I'll run and hide From darkness dreams are deserted am I still dreaming yet Well I wish she'd unlock her voice once and talk stead Of acting like we never have met

If she ain't feeling well then why don't she tell stead of turn ing her back to my face

Without any doubt now she seems too far out for me to return to her chase

Though the night ran swirling and whirling I remember her whisp ering yet

But evidently she don't an' evidently she won't she just acts like we never have met

Well I'm leavin' today I'll be on my way of this I can't say ve ry much

But if you want me to I can be just like you and pretend that we never have touched

And if anybody should ask me is it easy to forget

I'll say it's easily done you just pick anyone and pretend that you never have met
