

I Was Too Busy Loving You

Glen Campbell

When was the time
You first thought of leaving
And hid it away in back of your smile
And then slowly
Surely we came apart
Seconds to inches
Minutes to miles

And it was so easy
I was too blind
To notice what everyone else could see
I was too busy
Loving you
To see you
Slipping away from me

When do we lose
The things that we cherish
We blindly believe
The world's on our side
And from the very first time
I took it for granted
I'd already lost you
You'd already lied to me girl

It was so easy
I was too blind
To notice
What everyone else could see
I was too busy
Loving you
To see you
Slipping away

Couldn't see you
Slipping away
From me
