It's Your Amazing Grace

Glen Campbell

Everything I have in this world I give it to you Everything I see in this world I see it through you, oh yes I do

You're all that's in my heart You're all that's in my head

You know I believe this That your amazing grace It's your amazing grace Yes it is

I hold my head in my hands and I cry When I think of you Amazing grace Keeps us together

You're all that's in my heart You're all that's in my head

You know I believe this That your amazing grace It's your amazing grace Yes it is

I hold my head in my hands and I cry When I think of you Amazing grace Keeps us together
