

On The Wings Of My Victory

Glen Campbell

There is a road you must walk in this life
And there many who fall by the way
I have seen the dark side of night
Now I'm lookin' at the light of a brand new day

Like an Eagle soaring toward the sun
Like a ship without the sea
By and by my soul will fly on the wings of my victory

I've been down in the depths of the night
Then sorely tempted and I've given in
I've been burned by the heat of the fire
A more than one time loser whose about to win

Like an Eagle soaring toward the sun
Like a ship without the sea
By and by my soul will fly on the wings of my victory

Many times I have walked all alone
Seen good ones die young and bad ones go right on Seen faces turn away and hearts turn to stone
Now I found me a rock that I can lean on

Like an Eagle soaring toward the sun
Like a ship without the sea
By and by my soul will fly on the wings of my victory
By and by my soul will fly on the wings of my victory
