Glen Hansard & Markéta Irglová

I think it's time, we give it up And figure out what's stopping us From breathing easy, and talking straight The way is clear if you're ready now The volunteer is slowing down And taking time to save himself

The little cracks they escalated And before we knew it was too late For making circles and telling lies

You're moving too fast for me And I can't keep up with you Maybe if you'd slow down for me I could see you're only telling Lies, lies, lies Breaking us down with your Lies, lies, lies When will you learn

The little cracks they escalated And before you know it is too late For making circles and telling lies

You're moving too fast for me And I can't keep up with you Maybe if you'd slow down for me I could see you're only telling Lies, lies, lies Breaking us down with your Lies, lies, lies When will you learn

So plant the thought and watch it grow Wind it up and let it go

Lies
