Maya

Glen Phillips

I want the woman who would want me Velvet temple of her body Seeing lovers crushed together Doesn't make it any better

Maya, maya Kiss me through the veil I won't be ungrateful

I see angels gathered 'round me Lips of raspberry, breasts of honey Tear me open, sanctify me Find the beauty that's dying inside of me

Maya, maya Kiss me through the veil I won't be ungrateful I won't be ungrateful

Oh, the hunger of this body Is insatiable, ever wanting Just tear me open and rip it from me Fill me up again or give me nothing

Maya, maya Kiss me through the veil I won't be ungrateful I won't be ungrateful
