

Crave

Glenn Hughes

Back in the frame, gotta get a new high Now it's all the same, Cuz the funk it don't die In too deep, got sugar to the bone Yo u're a sick back beat You're a black cat moan

It's everything, it's everything

Pretty young thing, Better turn a new leaf Cuz you got no shame
, You're a liar and a thief Treat me like a dog You scream and I fetch Now it's killin' me, Makin' me a poor wretch

It's everything, it's everything

Tell me what you crave, It's a lift you save Tell me what your crave, Is it good for you?

Don't hide your face, You must confess In god's grace, you will address This energy did put you straight Your majesty don't ma ke me wait
