

Down

Glenn Hughes

Yeah

Yeah

Well, I'm feelin' like you took me in
Wrapped your cursed magic over me, well, I'm holding my day
If you vow to never cross my path
I'll give you back the shame, so you could see I'd rather be dead

Deep down inside your dream

The evil that you make

You put my life on trial

It's a chance I have to take

Too late the rhapsody

That plays inside my head

It's dark before the dawn

My eyes are burnin' red

I've been down is where you left me

I've been down, I do not belong

Down, won't somebody help me?

Down, I did you no wrong

In your world that's hid by tinted glass

You lie behind the fragments of yourself, oh yeah

In an empty room, you hide behind the smile

That pulls me back time and time again

The pistol's in my hand

I have to let you know

I put you in the ground

Now I have to let you go

The serpent that I ride

Has put a grip on me

My pain is glorified

Why can't you let it be?

I've been down is where you left me

I've been down, I do not belong

Down, won't somebody help me?

Down, I did you no wrong

Down

Down

Down

Down

Down

Down

Down

Deep down inside your dream

The evil that you make

You put my life on trial

It's a chance I have to take

My eyes are burnin' red

Down is where you left me

I've been down, I do not belong

Down, won't somebody help me?

Down, I did you no wrong

Down is where you left me

Down, I do not belong

Down

I've been down, I've been down

Down
