

Imperfection

Glenn Hughes

I feel like I've been here before I'm not afraid to cry And I don't wanna swim against The turn of the tide It could have been my innocence It could have been my pride I did not know but I still wonder why

There is a hole in the sky Take me down to the sea When I die I feel a little bit strange now I'm awake but I'm still breathing In a state of imperfection In a state of imperfection

Now tell me will you follow me? I want to be your friend The only thing just got to be Our love it won't end But someone took the sign away And it's so hard to find I wanna pray and open up my mind

Don't it get you Don't it let it get you feelin' down A revelation it's my salvation To be grounded
