

Paradise

Glenn Medeiros

Hold me close awhile, we're dancing.
You went and stole my heart from me.
Forgive this crazy fool for asking,
But would you spend the night with me?

In paradise...
Beneath the starry skies.
The stars are in your eyes.
You make the pale moon rise.
And like a bright moonbeam,
Your spirit lights my dreams.
And love is oh so nice,
In paradise...

Before you came my soul was empty.
Like a sailor lost at sea.
Life is a trip we could be taking.
So won't you travel on with me?
To paradise...
Beneath the starry skies.
The stars are in your eyes.
You make the pale moon rise.
And like a bright moonbeam,
Your spirit lights my dreams.
And love is oh so nice,
In paradise...

I was afraid I'd never reach you.
I'm so afraid you'll turn and walk away.
But now you're here and reality is ecstasy.
I love you...
Eternally...
(Eternally...)
In paradise...
Beneath the starry skies.
I look into your eyes.
You make the pale moon rise.
And like a bright moonbeam,
Your spirit lights my dreams.
And love is oh so nice,
In paradise...

Whoa, ohh, paradise...
Beneath the starry skies.
I look into your eyes.
I see the pale moon rise.
And like a bright moonbeam,
Your spirit lights my dreams.
And love is oh so nice,
In paradise...

Paradise...
