

The Wings Of My Heart

Glenn Medeiros

I remember the day
You went out of your way
Just to see me, I do
I still feel butterflies
When I look in your eyes
That old magic in you still there
Still the same
Like the sun and the rain
Nothing's changed
Our love remains

You're my anchor and my sail in the wind
I need you here forever
So hold on to the wings of my heart
We can fly together
Love will take us beyond the clouds
If you hold on
To the wings of my heart

When I wake up you're there
Gentle words in my ear
You whisper softly to me
After all these years
Smiles and some tears
You're still holding on so strong
So deep is your mind
One of a kind
With a touch of divine
Soaring to time

You're my anchor and my sail in the wind
I need you here forever
So hold on to the wings of my heart
We can fly together
Love will take us beyond the clouds
Just hold on
To the wings of my heart
