

I Got No Love

Gloria Estefan

I got no love in me
Guess who's to blame
It's a crying shame
Well it's all because of you
Don't live a lie, it's true, oh oh
I got no love in me
It's a mystery
How I just couldn't see
You dogged me long enough
Left me dry but I'm tough
I got no love in me

You ask me who to blame
Well it's only you
You ask me who I trust
Well it's me that's who
Baby it's true
You hurt me so much
You're all I ever knew

I knew it when I looked
Into your eyes
I should have known then
I should have realized
All of your lies
Baby did not amount to love

Just remember one thing
What goes around comes around
And what you did to me
One day I'll make you see baby

I got no love in me
Guess who's to blame
It's a crying shame
Well it's all because of you
Don't live a lie, it's true, oh, oh
I got no love in me
It's a mystery
How I just couldn't see
You dogged me long enough
I got no love in me

Bet you couldn't tell, bet you didn't know
You're the only man I really loved
Every single kiss, every time we touched
Imagined what you missed

Imagine now baby how's it gonna be
What you gonna do when you didn't have me
Whatcha gonna do when it's not real
And how's it gonna feel

Deep inside of me
I hope you find what makes you happy
Baby now that you're free

This is all that's left of me, baby

I got no love in me
Guess who's to blame
It's a crying shame
Well it's all because of you
It's a mystery

I got no love
I got no love
Got no love
I got no love in me
I got no love
I got no love
I got no love in me

I got no love in me
Guess who's to blame
It's a crying shame
Well it's all because of you
I got no love in me
It's a mystery
I got no love in me

I got no love in me, oh oh
I got no love in me
Got no love in me

I got no love in me
Guess who's to blame
It's a crying shame
Well it's all because of you
I got no love in me
It's a mystery
