

Path Of The Right Love

Gloria Estefan

Love, love, love, love, love
Say the word so very loosely
Where we come from is love, love, pure love
We're on our way back home

And on that way, you never look back
'Cause there's nothing there to see
Just look around you, there's always someone that's in need
Of maybe just kindness as we watch each other bleed
From wounds we choose, we never lose

Love, love, love, love, love
Misunderstood yet so desired
We pay the cost for love, love, real love
But we get back so much more, so much more

So many questions beginning to unfold
I look for the answers in the middle of my soul
I know you're out there and it's not like I've been told
So I run to you, I run to you

To find the path of the right love, oh yeah
Path of the right love
We're on the path of the one love, oh yeah
Path of the right love

Love, love, love, love, love
All around yet so elusive
If we don't reach out for love, love, this love
We're all just wasting time, precious time

When in the long run, what's meant to be will be
Those things we ask for become our destiny
But while we're living our souls can not be free
Eventually, we will come to see

To find the path of the right love, oh yeah
Path of the right love
We're on the path of the one love, oh yeah
Path of the right love

And that love, love, love, true love
Must surely be good, must surely be kind
And that love sweet love, strong love
Is meant to be yours, is meant to be mine
And I do believe if we share this life
We must learn to share all it's pain and strife

We're right on the path of the, path of the right love, oh yeah
Path of the right love
We're on the path of the one love, oh yeah
Path of the right love

To find the path of the right love, oh yeah
Path of the right love
We're on the path of the one love, oh yeah
Path of the right love

To find the path of the right love, oh yeah
Path of the right love
We're on the path of the one love, oh yeah
Path of the right love

Aspire to your inevitable bliss
And every grace will be given you
