Time gave me a window to be here Time made me some space Allowed me Entry

Blink, children have grown
They're on their own
Years, swift as a day
Before you know go blazing away

I'll live like forever is now
Because time waits for no one
And tomorrow just may not come 'round
Because time waits for no one
When we're gone
Only love goes on

Time, it's seamless illusion seduced me Time, to show me the ropes Enticed me To waste it

But truth is much better seen Within our dreams
Life's infinite thread
Unraveling then starting again

I'll live like forever is now
Because time waits for no one
And tomorrow just may not come 'round
Because time waits for no one
When we're gone
Only love goes on

Time waits for no one, it all seems to happen so fast (Time won't wait, oh no)
No end, no beginning
I'll live like each moment's the last
(Time won't wait, oh no)

Just when it's over, the journey has merely begun (Time won't wait, oh no)
No you, no me, in the end there is only the one (Time won't wait, oh no)
