

Broken Wings

Gloria Gaynor

Baby, I don't understand
Why we can't just hold on
To each other's hands

This time might be the last time I fear
Unless I make it all so clear
I need you so

We're in this life together
Even when one moves without the other
Different pages from the same story

Take these broken wings
And learn to fly again, learn to live so free
And when we hear the voices sing
The book of love will open up and let us in
Take these broken wings

Baby, I think tonight
We can take what was wrong
And make it right

This aching is familiar
It's something I remember
We can't touch without feeling
Can't heal without healing

Baby, it's all I know
That you're half of the flesh
And blood that makes me whole
I need you so

Only the young could fall so hard
Can be so careless, and ignorance costs

Take these broken wings
And learn to fly again, learn to live so free
And when we hear the voices sing
The book of love will open up and let us in
Take these broken wings

Let us in

So you've moved out of the way this time
Making room for each other
One without the other
We are broken but we are moving still

Take these broken wings
And learn to fly again, learn to live so free
And when we hear the voices sing
The book of love will open up and let us in
Take these broken wings

We're in this life together
Even when one moves without the other

You got to learn to fly, learn to live that love so free
And when we hear the voices sing
The book of love will open up for us and let us in

We are broken but we are moving still
A thousand different ways
