

The Luckiest Girl In The World

Gloria Gaynor

A bird came and brought you
I'm so glad I got you, honey
I must be the luckiest girl in the world

Now I get to touch you like
Like no one else can touch you, honey
I must be the luckiest girl in the world

Like a happy ending in a picture show, yeah
You're the one who takes me where I wanna go
Whenever you touch me

No more nights of weeping
I've found the love I'm keeping, honey
I must be the luckiest girl in the world

You can stay forever
And you can do whatever, honey
That makes me the luckiest girl in the world

Lucky, lucky me, yeah

That other guy was nowhere
So glad I didn't go there, honey
I must be the luckiest girl in the world

You know how to please me like
Like no one else could please me, honey
I must be the luckiest girl in the world

Love is all around us like a big rainbow, yeah
Nothing now can stop us, it's a great big goal
A great big goal, hey

No more nights of weeping
I've found the love I'm keeping, honey
I must be the luckiest girl in the world

'Cause no one gets to love you
Like I get to love you, sugar
That makes me the luckiest girl in the world

Lucky, lucky me
It's a miracle that's meant to be
Yeah, hey, hey

Lucky, lucky me
Yeah, yeah

No more nights of weeping
I've found the love I'm keeping, honey
I must be the luckiest girl in the world

'Cause no one gets to love you
Like I get to love you, sugar
That makes me the luckiest girl in the world

Hey, hey
Not the city but the world
Lucky me
Lucky, lucky me
