

Manifesting the Raging Beast

Glorior Belli

Cycles of hatred
Deathlike dissolution
I rode beneath thy burning eye;
In thought that can alone

Ascend, and so be
A partner of your crime.
Heralds have known,
Dreamt for thy Infinity...
Over every spot that has been by you caressed
From columns high, the raging beast awakes
And storms of retaliation unfold
Enthralled by hypnotic tones

"Forever abused..."
Softly sings the plague

Still a voice divine can sing
And this incomparable beauty

Still adorn a rotten heart, my own
Where the poison shines and boils

And in each note; emotions flung aloft with fevered pace.

The music of my soul is sung with tainted grace.
