

Cradle of Heroes

Gloryful

See, once more
A bloodred sun is rising up again
Across the sea, blinds our sight
So many dreams unspoken
And even if
This odyssey would be the final ride
Every single minute of our life
Was worth to fight

Fountain of strength
The cradle of heroes
Key to power, outlast the flame
Home of the brave
The cradle of heroes
Sail through the tides of time

Up in the sky
Beside the path of stars it's written down
Legends, myths of fallen names
In one breath with awe
Immortality
Promised every righteous man on board
The horizon burns
Calling us, calling for battle
