

Siren Song

Gloryful

Voices pierce the night
Calling us to rest
Another siren song that drugs our mind
Gazing into the width
Courage in our hearts
Pull harder on the ropes, God on our side

Resist and fight the sorcery
To agonize our souls relentlessly
Hold on tight
Defending the earth, we'll keep the fight

We are chasing the wind, we reach for the sky
As long the world turns we won't die
And no siren song will lead us astray
Freedom will show us the way

Wreck lined is the path
Demons are in sight
The end of our odyssey is near
No prayers reach the sky, no fear hits the riff
Deaf to the pain, ready for the light
Hey, hey, hey, judgement day...
