A Little Better

Gnarls Barkley

Now I can sing you the story line And if you like my story fine But ain't none of the glory mine

See my life was a lonely one And I was still mama's only son With no idea what I'm gon' become

And I didn't have long to know
That you don't have to be grown to go
I could've died so long before

Then I finally saw the sign And I made it on down the line One step at a time

I feel better, I can smile at it now I feel better, oh better
And even a little is still better
Oh, have mercy on me

Oh, it's probably plain to see
That I got a whole lot of pain in me
And it will always remain in me

So cold it's a crying shame Yet here I am trying to gain 'Cause I refuse to die in vain

The circumstances put soul in me And there ain't no holding me I've got a heart made of gold in me

Can you believe this is where I've been? And when adversity calls again I'll deal with it then

I feel better, I can laugh at it now I feel better, oh better
And even a little is still better
Oh, have mercy on me

Ah ah, yeah, um, oh, oh

I said everything's fine, you can take your time What would be on your mind
If you knew you was dying?
I would wanna just feel this one more time

I said everything's fine, take your time What would be on your mind If you knew you was dying? I would wanna just feel this one more time

Alright

I want to thank you morning sun I want to thank you lonely girl

Now I know I'm not the only one

I want to thank you friendly ghost When all the cards were close It seems like you cared the most

I want to thank you mom and dad For hurting me so bad But you're the best I ever had I want to thank you
