

lonely again

Gnash

Sometimes i cry, sometimes i die for you
Sometimes i try, sometimes i lie
For you
And at the end of the day i feel broken
Cause it's been a couple of days since we've spoken
I don't know why, but i'd give my life for you
Put it all on a line, i'd jump in a fire for you
When you're lonely at night, i'm there on a dime for you
And after all that you said, i was hopin'
That you'd be here in my bed, but i'm copin'
I don't know why, but i'd give my life for you
You said, you would care
You said, you'd be there
(matter of fact)
You said, you'd be here
So how come you're not here

Lonely again, so lonely again
How'd i get so lonely again
How'd i get so lonely again
I said i'm lonely again
(i'm so lonely)
How'd i get so lonely again
(i'm so lonely)
Think i'm lonely again
(i'm so lonely)
Won't you come hold me again□
